Michael Haltzel

Head of Delegation

Dr. Michael Haltzel is Senior Fellow at the Center for Transatlantic Relations of Johns Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies. Dr. Haltzel capped a distinguished career in public service as senior foreign policy advisor (1994-2005) to Senator Joseph R. Biden, Jr. (D-Delaware), Ranking Member (Chairman 2001-03) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and as Democratic Staff Director of the Subcommittee on European Affairs of the Committee. He was the lead Democratic Senate staffer on NATO and Balkan policy and, as such, was deeply involved in two rounds of NATO enlargement (1998; 2004) and in the Bosnia and Kosovo campaigns.

Dr. Haltzel went to the Senate in 1994 from the Library of Congress, where he was Chief of the European Division. From 1985 to 1992, he served as Director of West European Studies of the Woodrow Wilson Center at the Smithsonian Institution. He previously taught Russian and German History at Hamilton College (New York) and was Vice President for Academic Affairs at Longwood College (Virginia).

In 1990, Dr. Haltzel was a member of the U.S. delegation to the Copenhagen CSCE Conference; in 1991 a Guest Professor at the Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik (Ebenhausen, Germany); in September 1996 an OSCE monitor for the first post-war elections in Bosnia and Herzegovina; and in July 2004 a member of the U.S. delegation to the inauguration of Serbian President Boris Tadić.

The author, coauthor, editor or coeditor of ten books, he is a frequent contributor to American and European print and electronic publications and has spoken to audiences such as the Assemblée Nationale in Paris, the NATO Parliamentary Assembly in Copenhagen (2005), Deutscher Bundestag in Berlin (2006), and the OSCE Permanent Council in Vienna (2009). Dr. Haltzel received a B.A. magna cum laude with honors in history from Yale, an M.A. in Soviet Studies, and a Ph.D. in history, both from Harvard, and also studied in Berlin, Marburg and Helsinki. He speaks German and Russian.
